BP 4020 CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

The Chancellor will establish procedures, which prescribe the definition of "credit hour" consistent with applicable federal regulations, as they apply to community college districts.

The Chancellor shall establish procedures to assure that curriculum at the District complies with the definition of "credit hour" or "clock hour" where applicable. The Chancellor shall also establish procedure for using a clock-to-credit hour conversion formula to determine whether a credit hour program is eligible for federal financial aid. The conversion formula is used to determine whether such a credit-hour program has an appropriate minimum number of clock hours of instruction for each credit hour it claims.

Title 5 Sections 55002, 55002.5, 55256.5
Code of Federal Regulations: 34 CFR 668

Title 5 (§55002 and §55002.5) provides minimum hour to unit ratios and minimum unit increments at California Community Colleges. Specific hour to unit ratios and unit increments are defined locally. At West Valley and Mission College, 48-54 total student learning hours are equivalent to 1 unit of credit and the minimum unit increment is 0.5. Title 5 (§55256,5) provides specific hour to unit ratios for Cooperative Work Experience. The ratios are 75 hours of paid work experience for 1 unit of credit and 60 hours of non-paid work experience for 1 unit of credit.

The Code of Federal Regulations defines clock hour programs (34 CFR 668). Clock hour programs are required to use the formula for calculating units of credit that is contained within the code.

The West Valley Mission Community College District Chancellor shall ensure that procedures are written to establish the processes for approving individual credit and non-credit courses.

academic and intellectual freedom is best protected by a system of tenure, academic due process, and policies and procedures that provide faculty with the opportunity to freely express themselves in any on or off campus venue. In addition, the District asserts that the common good obligates the District community to defend academic freedom in society as a whole.

Rights of Academic Employees

The West Valley-Mission Community College District is committed to maintaining the following rights of all faculty members:

Faculty can engage in intellectual debate without fear of censorship or retaliation.

Faculty are entitled to full freedom in their use of books, online sources, internet sites, classroom speakers, and all formats of information dissemination. Publication of the results of any research that may result from the use of these resources is protected the opportunity to study controversial issues and divergent views and to arrive at their own conclusions· even if they differ from those of the instructor.

As colleagues, faculty members have obligations that derive from common membership in the community of scholars. They respect and defend the free inquiry of associates. In the exchange of criticism and idea(g)16(e)]TJETQ.00000912 0 612 792 reW*nBT/F2 12 Tf1 12
