Distance Learning

I. Need/Justification What is the intent in offering the course by distance education? How will learning be enhanced by the delivery of this course by distance education?

A distance learning format for this course will provide viable options for students who otherwise might not be able to take a marketing principles course due to other work and family commitments. Distance learning courses in this field serve students with varied work schedules and the outcomes benefit students and employers.

II. Regular and Effective Contact Please fill out the table to indicate the number of hours for each method of instruction.

A. Regular and Effective Contact

Describe how you will achieve regular and effective contact with your students. Indicate type, number and purpose of instructor-student contacts per semester.

Contact Type: E-mail

Activity Hours: 6 - 7

Purpose: Instructor communicates with students via consistent and thoughtful email feedback on assignments. Instructor engages in frequent and relevant dialogue throughout the semester on pertinent marketing topics.

Contact Type: Lecture

Activity Hours: 7 - 7

Purpose: Instructor creates and presents lectures to demonstrate the importance and value of marketing principles and the issues in local and global economies.

Contact Type: Discussion Forum

Activity Hours: 18 - 20

Purpose: Instructor creates and monitors 2-4 discussion forums per week to engage students and present critiques on their responses to topic-related and interpretation questions.

Contact Type: Case Studies

Activity Hours: 16 - 18

Purpose: Instructor presents case studies drawn from Silicon Valley and global current examples. Instructor monitors and critiques student responses ranging from one-page recommendations to a final research paper.

Contact Type: Videos

Activity Hours: 7 - 8

Purpose: Instructor shares pertinent videos about marketing principles topics. Among the videos selected, the Kauffman Founders School videos are very current and instructional. The instructor provides discussion prompts that lead to valuable discussions about the video clips.

B. Student Activities

Describe type, number and purpose of student assignments.

Contact Type: E-mail

Activity Hours: 6.00 - 7.00

Purpose: Faculty initiates weekly ongoing threaded e-mail conversations with students in the course.

Contact Type: Chat Rooms

Activity Hours: 3.00 - 4.00

Purpose: Faculty conducts periodic chat room sessions with students.

Contact Type: Online Course Management System

Activity Hours: 5.00 - 6.00

Purpose: This course delivers content, structures student-to student and faculty interaction, and provides the platform for collecting and tracking assignments using the WVC online course management system.

Contact Type: Lecture

Activity Hours: 10.00 - 12.00

Purpose: Students read, watch, and/or listen to content delivered by one or more of the following methods: PowerPoint presentations, webinars, published links, published articles.

Contact Type: Discussion Forum

Activity Hours: 12.00 - 14.00

Purpose: Students participate in mandatory weekly discussion forums on topics where students are expected to review materials, offer their opinions, and provide feedback to comments posted by other students. In addition to a weekly discussion forum topic, there is also an ongoing discussion forum where students can ask questions of the instructor or other students, and students can share interesting articles they found regarding sales related topics.

Contact Type: Case Studies

Activity Hours: 13.00 - 14.00

Purpose: Students participate in case studies drawn from current Silicon Valley and global examples. Case studies arrange from a one-page recommendation to a final research paper.

Contact Type: Videos

Activity Hours: 5.00 - 6.00

Purpose: Students view videos that are used to supplement reading and course material.

C. Sample Assignment

Describe a distance learning assignment.

Respond to this discussion prompt: Successful marketing focuses on marketers' keen awareness of customer wants and demands. Despite marketers' strategic and thoughtful planning, some people argue that marketing is "mass manipulation." Do you think marketing is a strategic approach or mass manipulation? Please support your point of view with relevant examples and submit your answer in the designated forum.

D. Methods of Evaluation

Describe a distance learning method of evaluation.

Students are expected to post to required weekly forums. Students also complete weekly homework assignments, take three exams, and submit a final marketing plan project.

III. How will students meet each course objective in a distance learning environment? Please include an example of a method of instruction, student assignment and method of evaluation for each objective.

IV. Describe how students will access instructional materials and resources. If you require students to purchase specific software, please describe how it will be available to students.

V. Distance education courses, resources, and materials must be designed and delivered in such a way that the level of communication and course - taking experience is the same for students with or without disabilities.

(<http://extranet.cccco.edu/Portals/1/AA/DE/2011DistanceEducationAccessibilityGuidelines%20FINAL.pdf>)

Describe how this course (instruction, materials, (videos, documents, Powerpoints), and resources outside the LMS) is accessible to students with disabilities.

All course materials are accessible and compliant with Electronic and Information Technology Section 508, Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (amended 1998, 2000) and California SB 105 (September 2002). This includes content and instructional systems such as the course management system. The West Valley Distance Learning Course Accessibility Checklist is available at http://www.westvalley.edu/desp/docs/DESP_508_simplified_checklist_basic.pdf.

VI. What resources or technical support are necessary for students and/or faculty to offer the course by distance education?
