

> Confidentiality

Bill of Rights

Tu

Library.E

W

Taken from chapter the American Library Association (ALA) Bill of Rights

2.4 Libraries should provide materials and information because of their origin, background, or viewpoint.

2.5 Libraries should provide materials and information because of their origin, background, or viewpoint.

3. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility for information and enlightenment.

4. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of their right of free expression and free access to ideas.

6. Libraries provide as broad a range of services as possible to meet the needs of the community.

7. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of their right of free expression and free access to ideas.

> Lost Books

> Selection of Materials

Research Instruction Session Policy

> Re