

2.B.1.3- Library Collection Development Policy

<https://www.westvalley.edu/library/>

The screenshot shows the West Valley College Library website. The top navigation bar includes 'Home / Library' and the word 'Library' in a large font. Below this is a secondary navigation bar with tabs for 'Library Home', 'General', 'Link+', 'Printing', 'Information Competency', 'Policies', and 'Archives'. The 'Policies' tab is selected, and a dropdown menu is open, listing several policy categories: 'Code of Ethics', 'Community Borrowers', 'Confidentiality', 'Library Bill of Rights', 'Lost Books', and 'Selection of Materials'. The 'Selection of Materials' item is highlighted in yellow. Below the menu, the text of the 'Selection of Materials' policy is visible, starting with 'The library is the central location for learning materials at West Valley College. Materials include...' and listing the library's purposes.

The library is the central location for learning materials at West Valley College. Materials include...

- To provide materials to support the curriculum.
- To provide materials on the whole range of knowledge, with some information on most subjects about which West Valley College students and faculty seek.
- To provide materials on current local, national and international issues on which citizens of a democracy need to be informed.
