

To participate in the selection and evaluation of personnel and to make recommendations regarding personnel within their areas;

To establish and maintain, within their areas of responsibility, a climate that encourages the development and retention of competent personnel and achieves College and District objectives;

To maintain effective channels of communication;

To promote