

West Valley - Mission
Community College District Council

District Council

Home > Committees > District Council

Welcome Meet Join LEAD Changes

Welcome

The District Council (DC) functions as the highest level District-wide participatory governance body, especially in the areas of policy, Governance and Planning. The West Valley Community College District Council is a representative body of the West Valley Community College Board of Trustees. Opportunity is provided for participation from all District constituencies. The Council encourages open communication and respects the needs and expectations of faculty, classified staff, students, and administrators. The Council promotes achieving college-based mission, goals, and priorities. It strengthens relationships among faculty, classified staff, students, and administrators with the statewide community college system.

District Council membership and operating principles are posted below.

Members

Operating Principles

In response to the District Council Survey, all employees were asked to complete a survey regarding their views on the District Council. A total of 1,000 employees completed the survey.

District Council Survey, October 2014:

Responses of District Council Members

Responses of non-District Council Members

The District's 2008 Organizational Review and 2011 Strategic Plan can be accessed below:

Organization

Strategic Plan, March 2011

District Goals are posted below:

2013-14 District Goals